

Food Solutions Publishing Ltd Privacy Policy

This page explains our privacy policy and how we will use and protect any information about you that you give us when you visit this website.

The Food Solutions website does not capture or store personal information about you, it simply logs your IP address, which is automatically recognised by our web server. This is known as a 'log file' which we may use to compile site usage statistics.

We do use Google Analytics – see below for details.

"This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States . Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above."

This privacy statement only covers the Food Solutions website. Our website has links to the websites of other organisations. Once you link to another site, including for credit card subscription, you are subject to the privacy policy of that site.
